DEDICATION

The yearbook staff wishes to dedicate this year's Hallmark to Henrietta May Goeltz Pearson (1906-1987). Tony Larimer says of Aunt Henri: "Over the years I watched her give of herself to students, teachers, friends, and family. She could organize the annual Christmas dinner, perform in a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, find dates for a boarder for the Junior Prom, chauffeur students to the theater, gather her family and extended family for holiday feasts in the boarding department dining room, and keep St. Margaret's Chapel sparkling for each day's morning prayer service. And she did so with limitless energy and enthusiasm. She would advise, scold, encourage, comfort, and inspire everyone who came within her embrace. And she did so with limitless love.

"Her time at Rowland Hall-St. Mark's School stretched over sixty years: first as a student, then as house-mother, finally as active alum and weekly visitor to the first grade. Each year she would meet the graduating seniors and then present one of them the Aunt Henri Award.

"At her memorial service held in St. Mark's Cathedral, Father Pete Winder, former chaplain of the school, said that Aunt Henri was 'a woman filled with energy . . . who poured out her love to neighbor and stranger and family . . . who continually gave herself away . . . but counted it a blessing.' And a blessing it shall continue to be as long as that great spirit remains alive in all those who were touched by her."

Right: Aunt Henri enjoying one of her visits with the first grade. Below: Nat Seeley receiving the 1985 Aunt Henri Award.

Time is the dripping sand in an hour glass,
the shadow of a young couple beneath a midnight moon,
the descent of a glacier,
or the slow burning of a candle.
Or is it an old man, his bifocals rested on the table, a pocket watch dangling from his worn coat?

ACTIVITIES

Time is a strange way
To tell how wise a mountain is.
Time defines the way a river
flows;
Time shows how tall a flower is.
Time is a measurement of fortune and disaster.
Time is a strange thing.

DEBATE

Matt Rogers learns the penalty for not refiling his briefs after every debate.

How early does the bus leave on Saturday morning?

Senators Smith and Quigley look for flaws in their opponents' legislation.

Coach Sturges listens to another complaint about the obtuseness of debate judges.

The 1987-88 Rowland Hall-Saint Mark's Debate Team is predicted to be another hot ticket to the state tournament. Dr. Sturges knows that he has a strong, eager team this year and hopes to take them to the top. The team members are Liz Abaunza, Mike Benefield, David Bernstein, Mark Bremer, Marina Condas, Sarah Culp, Libero Della Piana, Zac Guevera, Marta Heilbrun, Kirstin Holm, Robert Hyun, Gavin Kelly, Grace Kong, Linda Lai, Jennifer Langheinrich, Wendy Lin, Garrett Lindsay, Alex McClain, Alyssa Naumann, Josh Quigley, Colette Rabin, Dominique Rampton, Dan Ray, Matt Rogers, Ed Salmon, Jennie Simler, Benjamin Smith, Meredith Smith, Sutton Snook, Antonia Stang, Lauren Strachan, Rachel Sweet, Michelle Wells, and Rachael Yocum.

MIDDLE SCHOOL RETREAT

On September 23, the middle schoolers, along with the peer counselors and several faculty members, went to Mountain Dell Park in Parley's Canyon for a day of workshops and games aimed at getting the seventh and eighth graders better acquainted with each other. Everyone brought sack lunches and had fun in a very informal environment. The peer counselors did a wonderful job of leading games and encouraging everyone to participate.

PEER COUNSELING

The 1987-88 school year was the third year of the peer counseling program at Rowland Hall-St. Mark's. The program has become stronger each year. The directors, Joanne Leach and Ruth Sturges, recruited an excellent group. The peer counselors were Rachel Berenson, David Bernstein, Lara Cole, Robert Hyun, Josh Quigley, Eric Selekof, Mark Smith, Libero Della Piana, and Jeff Stephens. These students made quite an effort to acquaint themselves with others and to make their help available.

TETON SCIENCE SCHOOL

About thirty biology students, freshmen, sophomores, and juniors, spent one week of October at the Teton Science School in Jackson Hole. We were all a little bit nervous about spending an entire week eating health food and recycling our lunch bags. However, we learned we can have fun and and be educated at the same time! Field studies, bike riding, and volleyball tournaments took up most of the day. We all enjoyed the trip and met people we might not have known otherwise. The staff even made us chocolate cake!

FINE ARTS

In November, students in the performing arts and fine arts classes presented En Concert '87. The purpose of the performance was to give students an opportunity to demonstrate what they had learned in their dance, theater, music, and art classes. In addition, the audience was treated to a surprise performance by Joan Kingston and Doug Wortham, our own tap dancing stars! The newly dedicated George Fox Gallery was the scene for displays of student art. The proceeds from En Concert helped to purchase much needed equipment for our auditorium.

FOREIGN STUDIES

Rowland Hall-St. Mark's takes great interest in student foreign exchange studies. Every year R.H.S.M. has at least one A.F.S. student: this year's student is Jasna Dragojevic from Yugoslavia. There are also many Japanese students who do not hear about the school through any formal program but by advertising which runs in Japan. Rowland Hall also urges its own students to study abroad. This year Jennifer Beck, Eden Olson, and Jane Ann Burdick are studying abroad through A.F.S; Chris Beck is with the Andover Program; and Jim Page and Curt Wahlen are with Youth for Understanding.

DANCE CLUB

Dance Club members met for an hour and a half once a week under the direction of Joan Kingston, the dance teacher, who graciously offered her time to lead the Dance Club after school. Mrs. Kingston arranged for guest instructors from Ririe Woodbury and the Repertory Dance Theater to visit. Arrangements were made to purchase choreographed works by Linda Smith, a member of RDT. Performing the works was quite a treat for Dance Club members this year.

CANDLE AND CAROL

DANCES

"Put your hands in the air like you just don't care and say, 'Yeah ... Yeah!'"

"Now look into my eyes- no, no- not his ... mine."

"Well, would ya look who finally showed up!"

The usual Sam expression ...

"Oh Zachary ... stop!"

" I'm not asking any more questions."

ROWTOWN

Rowtown was under the direction of a new faculty member this year, Mr. Rick McClure. The band members were Patricia Anderson, lead vocalist; Jason Hogle, guitar; Kathy Kingston, drums; Matt Rogers, bass; Gavin Kelly, bass; Garrett Lindsay, saxophone; and Stephanie Kao, saxophone. Rick McClure is very proud of the effort the band expended this year. He says that all of the members have great potential and can do anything they set their minds to.

PEACE FEAST

The Second Annual International Peace Feast took place on the afternoon of December 18 in the school cafeteria. The Peace Feast was a celebration of peace held by the middle school. Under the direction of Mrs. Sturges and Ms. Helm, the seventh and eighth graders organized a feast, music, and skits representing the many cultures that they have been studying. The students felt that understanding and celebrating different cultures would help further international peace.

AMNESTY

This year RHSM began a chapter of Amnesty International, a "worldwide movement of people acting on the conviction that governments must not deny individuals their basic human rights." Amnesty has a number of goals; one of them is to promote fair and prompt trials for all political prisoners. Torture is happening around the world; Amnesty is trying to abolish torture and execution.

A group of students this year made Amnesty possible: they were committed to help certain prisoners regain their human rights. Each month Amnesty supplied RHSM with an "urgent action" area. The members of Rowland Hall's organization wrote letters to persuade officials to release the prisoners. The students at Rowland Hall were committed to help Amnesty International work, which in turn, helps political prisoners.

Time is hands on a face,

Time is an alarm in the morning.

It's a deadline or a beginning.

Time is a never ending circle-

THE SECOND COMING

Turning and turning in the widening gyre
 The falcon cannot hear the falconer;
 Things fall apart; the center cannot hold;
 Mere anarchy is loosed upon the world,
 The blood-dimmed tide is loosed, and everywhere
 The ceremony of innocence is drowned;
 The best lack all conviction, while the worst
 Are full of passionate intensity.
 Surely some revelation is at hand;
 Surely the Second Coming is at hand.
 The Second Coming! Hardly are those words out
 When a vast image out of Spiritus Mundi
 Troubles my sight: somewhere in sands of the desert
 A shape with lion body and the head of a man,
 A gaze blank and pitiless as the sun,
 Is moving its slow thighs, while all about it
 Reel shadows of the indignant desert birds.
 The darkness drops again; but now I know
 That twenty centuries of stony sleep
 Were vexed to nightmare by a rocking cradle,
 And what rough beast, its hour come round at last,
 Slouches towards Bethlehem to be born?     Yeats

Before the rising sun we fly,
So many roads to choose
We start to walk & learn to run,
And when the evening comes
We smile,
So much of life ahead,
We will find a place
Where there is room to grow,
And yes,
WE HAVE JUST BEGUN.

WAR PIGS

Generals gathered in their masses just like witches at black masses.
Evil minds that plot destruction.
Sorcerer of death's construction.
In the fields a body's burning as the war machine keeps turning.
Death and hatred to mankind poisoning their brainwashed minds.
Politicians hide themselves away
They only started the war.
Why should they go out to fight?
They leave that all to the poor.
Time will tell on their power minds making war just for fun.
Chaining people into bondages.
Wait until their judgement day comes.
Now in darkness the world stops turning.
Ashes where the bodies' burning.
No more war pigs of the power.
Ended, God has struck the hour.
Day of judgement God is calling.
On their knees the war pigs crawling.
Begging mercies for their sins
Satan laughing spreads his wings.

Sonnet CXXII

Thy gift, thy tables, are within my brain
Full character'd with lasting memory,
Which shall above that idle rank remain,
Beyond all date, even to eternity:
Or, at the least, so long as brain and heart
Have faculty by nature to subsist;
Till each to raz'd oblivion yield his part
Of thee, thy record never can be miss'd.
That poor retention could not so much hold,
Nor need I tallies thy dear love to score;
Therefore to give them from me was I bold,
To trust those tables that receive thee more:
To keep an adjunct to remember thee,
Were to import forgetfulness in me.

In the summer of 1987, my dad and I went to the Vintage races at the Laguna Seca raceway I've never seen so many Porsches, Ferraris, McLaren's, Lotuses, Maseratis, even the spectator parking lot was a collection of rare and exotic automobiles The smell of nitrous and high octane fuel exhaust, and the sound, the intense screaming as cars blast past the pits at speeds most people only experience in a jet at some 30,000 feet It boggles my mind to think that these cars are more than 15 years old! I can only describe the experience as a total sensory overload Thirty years from now look for me at Laguna Seca, or Le Mans, but don't look in the bleachers, look for me in the pits, or maybe even behind the wheel, or the course driving, of course, a Porsche... maybe.
